This amendment deletes the national currency codes for the 12 member states of the European Community that have adopted the euro and their dependencies.

This change is effective 2002-01-03.

There is no definitive information about the Andorran Peseta (ADP). Though I believe that it is no longer a valid currency I have been unable to get written confirmation from Andorra. Until such a time it remains in ISO 4217 Table A1.
